WHY ICGN?

Because G is Key!

We are a global, investor-led community representing organisations responsible for more than US$100 trillion in assets under management.

We focus on the “G”, because G is key. Good governance underpins long-term value creation.

It is the foundation of well-run companies, effective capital allocation and resilient capital markets, and it provides the framework for tackling the most pressing challenges facing business today.

That is why we focus our policy work, networking and education on the material governance issues that matter most to investors.

We champion high standards of corporate governance and investor stewardship, in line with our members fiduciary responsibilities, to drive better long-term outcomes.

Our work focuses on 4 key areas:

Strong and effective boards

Protecting shareholder rights

Reliable reporting

Best practices in investor stewardship

What our members say about ICGN

CALSTRS

The International Corporate Governance Network plays a crucial role in advancing global standards for transparency, accountability, and responsible business practices. CalSTRS is proud to be a member of an organization that fosters dialogue among global investors, companies, and policymakers which contributes to sustainable economic growth worldwide.

Kirsty Jenkinson, Investment Director, Sustainable Investment & Stewardship Strategies, CALSTRS

ICGN's commitment to fostering the highest governance standards through an inclusive global approach aligns perfectly with our ideology. By prioritizing integrity and sustainability, even in complex markets, ICGN has created an ideal platform for us to champion stewardship in emerging markets like India. It also provides an opportunity to bring an emerging market voice into global discussions via webinars, panel discussions and associated thought leadership. We truly embrace this partnership that bridges cultural divide, involve constructive dialogue with like-minded individuals, collaborate and drive positive change.

Chirag Mehta, CAIA, Chief Investment Officer (CIO), Quantum Mutual Fund
